SPECIAL TO BRAINARD PLATT, JOURNAL HERALD

Dayton member firms of the New York Stock Exchange will conduct four series of advanced investment seminars at the University of Dayton beginning next month.

A series will include a weekly two-hour session for six consecutive weeks. One will meet on Monday evenings beginning Sept. 14; one on Tuesdays (Sept. 15), one on Wednesdays (Sept. 16), and one on Thursdays (Sept. 17). All will be from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in Wohleben Hall on the campus.

Course sponsors point out that registrants, who will be limited to 25 for each seminar, should have a basic knowledge of the fundamental principles of investing in stock and bonds.

Information is available by calling the university's Community Service Center at Baldwin 2-6721, Ext. 246.
